“ I would like to extend my condolences to the family and friends. It is heart rending to lose someone you love but the Bible comforts us by promising that there is going to be a resurrection to life in the near future. John 5: 28, 29 holds out this hope. At Revelation 21:3-5 Jehovah God faithfully promises that tears and pain will soon be a thing of the past. I hope these Bible passages provide you with much needed comfort during this difficult time.

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Take comfort in knowing that our Heavenly Creator understands your pain. He will soon remove all pain, sorrow, and death forever! (Rev 21:3,4) May this promise be of comfort to you as you gain the strength and inner peace to cope with the days ahead, remembering that God will be by your side (Philippians 4:13).

“ To the Family and Friends of Ms. Willis:
I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer encouragement from God's Word. God made a loving provision to restore dead ones to life and his Word assures us: "Your dead ones will live....They will rise up." (Isaiah 26:19). Jesus confirmed his role in this promise when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). God's only-begotten Son encourages us: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me." (John 14:1)

“I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and agony, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God’s word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus, assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)
