Lynn, you were always my mom's favorite cousin.

Boy, I would get jealous whenever she went on and on about how she loved her "Lynn."

I remember that whenever I called to ask how you were doing, you would respond, "Can't complain. I'm still here."

It seems strange not to be able to share a laugh with you about our families and life.

Say hello to Boo Boo for me. I know she greeted you with a big smile and open arms.

Forever a fan...

“ You were the deciding factor in what was the best career choice I made. When I asked you if I should take the job, as usual, you didn't go into heavy detail or a long story. You simply said "just come on."

I smile and think of you every time I hear the old Doo Woop song Lavender Blue "Dilly, Dilly." It reminds me of how Terri, Gary, and I would sing it as an homage to you. Be at peace cousin, your quiet, yet strong personality will be missed.
