

Lyric Lamai Carter

December 19, 2013 - January 26, 2014

In loving and precious memories of Lyric Lamai Carter Lyric Lamai Carter/Taylor born December 19, 2013 at 1:05 P.M. at Atlanta medical center to Serena Carter and Levester Taylor 6lbs 6oz and 18 inches long. For the short period of time Lyric was here she had a smile that would brighten anyone's day, she was smiling in the womb at 6 months. Lyric lived up to her name the whole time she was here, she loved music. Lyric was so precious and moving so fast. Cooing and rolling over at five weeks, even trying to hold her bottle. God wants only the best in his kingdom. January 26, 2014 He called His precious angel Lyric Lamai home. She leaves to cherish her precious memories, her mother Serena Carter, her father Levester Taylor, big sisters JaNiyah Goldsberry Jada Taylor , big brothers Justin Taylor Levester Taylor Jr. , Latiff Taylor. Grandparents Marlene Carter , Patricia Singleton great grandparents John Ewing and Cheryl Ewing and beloved deceased grand father Bernice Taylor. And a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, family and friends .I like to thank all the family and friends for their love and support during this time of grief.

“ My deepest sorrow to the family for a life ending too soon, may your hearts find peace in knowing that soon we will reap the many benefits of Jehovah God's love; and that of his son Jesus Christ Åç?? John 3:16; Psalms 83:18. During Bible times the Shunammite woman leaped for joy when her loved one was resurrected to life again on earth -2Kings 4:32-37, and when Lazarus was resurrected, no doubt his sisters Mary and Martha leaped for joy Åç?? John 11:43, 44. We too, will soon leap for joy when we are reunited with our love ones Åç?? John 5:27-29; Psalms 37:11, 29; Revelation 21:3, 4.

“ To he family of LyricPlease accept my condolences in the loss of your baby girl. The death of a child can be one of the most devastating experiences a parent an face. At times the loss may be unbearable. Please find comfort in Gods word the Bible. Psalm 55:22 says 'throw your burden upon God and he will sustain you.' May you find comfort in knowng God has promised that soon he is going to do away wih death, pain and sickness and all those in his memory that has died will come back to live in peace on a paradise earth. (Revelation 21:34)

“ My condolences goes out to the family at this very difficult time. May you find comfort in knowing that the death of a loved one does not end it all. God has promised a resurrection at John 5:25. At that time we will be reunited with our loved ones. Also at that time, God will completely remove death, tears, mourning, outcry and pain (Revelation 21:4). May God continue to give you all the strength to cope. You can also read the Bible online and find more comforting thoughts at www.jw.org

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that Jehovah, the God of the Bible, will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4).
