“ Thank all of you who made this home going service possible for Sis. Maggie Kelly. All the remarks were timely and expressed in ways that are pleasant to remember. You captured the goodness of her character and that blessed me as one of her first cousins from SC. Her laughter caused me to laugh because she seemed to pull all the joy out of whatever was funny to her. Today you made it known that she was liberal in sharing her inner joy with others as well as family. Thank you all so much. She was a great cousin to model in several ways; beautiful on the inside and out. The kind of family member you would like to live much longer but God is in control.

“ Maggie, my dear love, I can not find the words to say goodbye so I won't. I will however, thank you for your love, your kindness and all of the things that you were and are to me. I shall never forget the moments we shared and the life lessons I learned from being with you during our romantic years and through the years of our great friendship. Until we meet again, sleep well my love!

To the family and close friends, may God comfort and sustain each of you during the tragic loss of our friend and loved one. let us hold dear to the notion that our " GOD KNOWS BEST"! If there is anything that me and My family can do, please do not hesitate to call upon me.

“ Maggie was such a sweet lady. We worked together for many years at BellSouth/AT&T on the 33rd floor of the Midtown tower. I never heard her say an unkind word. She is with God and the angels now and forever.

“As Maggie’s oldest cousin on the Spann side, I will always remember the good times we had while growing up in Sumter, SC. As we got older and moved on with our lives, we always managed to stay in touch with each other through visits and phone calls. Our visits would often consist of talks, laughter and sharing meals when she visited Sumter. When I and other family members visited her in Decatur, she would always welcome us into her beautiful and immaculate home with a warm smile, a hot meal prepared and a place to sleep.

She had excellent communication skills and was a great listener. When I spent too much time on a subject, she would respond time to go forward due to my habit of talking fast, becoming long winded and often repeating the same story. I enjoyed making her laugh at humorous stories about my job and my family.

Maggie was always about family. She always made it a point to be at all family gatherings no matter where she was or what she was doing. She coordinated many events for the family reunions and often spoke of engaging the younger members of the family in planning future family reunions.

However, what I will remember most about Maggie is her warm, loving personality. She had a good heart; She was always there when she was needed. She was a hard worker, highly organized and neat in all aspects of her life.

Though I will miss her, I know that she is now at peace with God.
