“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. I know that the loss of a love one brings much grief and agony. Thanks to our loving Heavenly Father we can find much comfort in his word the Bible. Our Heavenly Father gives us the promise of a resurrection (John 5:28, 29 Acts 24:15) and the end of death and suffering. (Revelation 21:3, 4) Getting to know the true God and his son Jesus, assures us all eternal life. (John 17:3) For more Bible based comfort on how to cope with the death of a loved one visit: www.jw.org

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mr. Malcolm X. Scott. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort and hope in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ To the Family Of Malcolm X Scott:

Malcolm was a young man whom I got to know in a special way. He was the most considerate person that I have met. Words can not express the sorrow that I feel, but knowing God has called one of his Angel's home and that he will be at Rest.

May God continue to keep the Family during this difficult time. Rest In Heaven Malcolm.

“ You were like a ray of sunshine that made anyone laugh at your antics. I still can't believe you're gone. I did not expect it. I wish your family strength and love to keep them together during at after this time. Death sometimes can push our loved ones away. Keep & Stay together. Rely on strength. He will always be there, not physically but always in memories and at weird occasional times spiritually.

“ To the Family and Friends of Mr. Scott: Jesus' words recorded at John 14:1 encourage us..."Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me." God has made a provision to raise up ones who fall asleep in death..."He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). God is faithful and always keeps his promises!
