“ To the Mallett Family and Friends; I know how difficult this time must be for you. May the light from God's word the bible be a guide and comfort through the darkness of your loss. When the time is right, please look up the following scriptures in your copy of the Bible
John 5:28,29 gives hope of a future resurrection and Rev 21:3,4 of a day when there will be no more death, mourning or pain.. We can have faith in what the Bible says because our God, Jehovah (Psalm 83:18)who promised these things...cannot lie..(Hebrews 6:18.) Jesus at John 11:11 said to his disciples..Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep. This helps us to know that Drew is sleeping awaiting a resurrection as was Lazarus and not suffering (Ecclesiastes 9:5) My prayers are with you as God strengthens you in the days ahead. “ I want to take this time to extend my sincere condolences to the Malltett family. I am very sorry to hear of your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that one day soon Jehovah God will swallow up death forever, and those who have already died will have the opportunity to be resurrected to life in Paradise on earth. (Isaiah 25:8a, John 5:28,29) There is no better feeling than having the chance to embrace someone who you've lost in death at least one more time. That beautiful thought is going to be fulfilled in the future by means of God's Son, Jesus Christ, for he said, I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. (John 11:25) May these scriptural thoughts bring you a measure of comfort as you reflect on God's future promises of a resurrection in Paradise on earth.

“ Drew will truly be a useful angel in heaven. I can remember when Drew was about 8 or 9 years old. He was a constant visitor to the school clinic (I was his school nurse), and this was his last visit for that day. It was the end of the day and I was having a terrible headache when he made his visit before going home. Nurse Ledford, why aren't you smiling this evening, he cheerfully asked. I am having a terrible headache, I replied. Can I make a call though he said. Sure, go ahead, I said, placing my head back on my desk. How is coming to pick me up? I heard him ask. His dad must have answered, and I could hear him after ward telling his dad not to hang up. Nurse Ledford has a headache so when you are coming, take her a bowl of soup, he warmly said. I quickly jumped up when I heard him as I could not believe a 9 year old would be so thoughtful and mature. Suffice to say the headache disappeared immediately. The soup was totally delicious! Love you Drew. It was later when I met Jackie, (Drew's mother) that she told me how attached Drew was to me because I resembled his grandmother. Love you Drew!
