“ In Loving Memory of Mr. Malvin

Mr. Malvin was a truly wise and wonderful man. For over five years, I had the honor of being his massage therapist, but our connection went far beyond that. He was a loving and loyal client who became like a father figure to me.

Our sessions were filled with deep, meaningful conversations. He was incredibly intuitive and opened my eyes to new ways of seeing the world. I will forever be grateful for the wisdom he shared with me —wisdom I will carry and pass down to my children.

I love you, Mr. Malvin. You were such a great man. May you rest peacefully in paradise.

Hello...I just recently found out that Malvin passed. We have been friends since our UPS days back in the 70s and we worked together at FedEx. I knew something was wrong when he didn't return my calls and texts. Can you please tell me what happened to him. You can find me on Facebook under the name of Dee Adams. I have a swimming pool as my picture. I really appreciate your response as this will help me with closure for my friend. Thank you SO much!!!!

“ Malvin and I have been friends for years. We met when we both worked for UPS and remained friends after he retired from FedEx. Malvin was like family to me. I had not heard from him after leaving several messages and text which I thought was odd and just decided to Google his name. You can only imagine my devastation today (3-15-25) when his obituary popped up. I wish someone could tell me what happened to my friend.
