“ Cousin Mamie was always so hospitable whenever we came to New York from Philadelphia. She had a loving heart and took great joy in caring not only for her own children but for many other children as well. She was soft-spoken, much like my mother, yet when she spoke, she meant every word.

To her children and all who loved her, we are praying for your strength, comfort, and peace during this difficult time. May God surround you with His love and precious memories of her life.

May Cousin Mamie rest in eternal peace. She will be dearly missed and lovingly remembered. ❤️

“ There are some people whose presence alone makes the world feel softer, safer, and more loving. Mama Lowe was one of those rare souls. She was a supportive ear and a guiding hand whenever I needed it most, steady in her wisdom and gentle in her ways. Soft-spoken but deeply present, she touched every member of our family with a quiet strength that shaped our lives.

I often think back to those early years, when I lived with her as a young mother. She was a calm anchor in my life, offering comfort without judgment and guidance without ever raising her voice. Her home was a place where love lived in the walls, and you could feel it the moment you walked through the door.

I will always remember how she started cooking her greens late on Saturday nights so they'd be perfect for Sunday dinner. The whole house would fill with the smell of love, warmth, and home — a scent that wrapped around you like a hug. That feeling of care in the air wasn't just from the food; it was from Mama herself. Her presence alone made everything feel right.

I remember watching her raise and care for so many children — Pervis, Shane, Niemah, John John, David, and others who came through her doors. She treated every one of us the same, with fairness, patience, and a heart big enough to hold us all. Her gentle arms wrapped around my children and me during holidays, hard times, and everyday moments. Those hugs were something I always looked forward to.

Mama Lowe was a woman of excellence — strong, steady, and full of grace. She lived her life with love as her language and kindness as her legacy. I will miss her deeply, but I will carry her lessons, her warmth, and her example with me always.

*Rest in peace, Mama Lowe.
Your love lives on in all of us.*

“ My deepest condolences to all.

Saying goodbye to a friend of several decades is never easy. Knowing that the laughter, prayers, conversations, phone calls and emotional support that has been there all this time is no longer available, is the hardest part of God calling her home.

Mamie C. was a force to be reckoned with, she was a fierce lover and protector of not only her own children and friends, but of the many others who called her mama, grandma, auntie, friend or who came into her life for any reason. She loved us all.

And as a friend, she was the best prayer partner, the best person to laugh with because she would laugh deeply or giggle like a schoolgirl, making for a lasting joy even after a “visit” be it by phone or in person.

So, I will end this, as we did our visits, by saying have a blessed rest Mamie C, love you.

“ Sending my heartfelt condolences to our family as we honor a beautiful life. For over 45 years, she welcomed me not just as a daughter-in-law, but as family in every sense of the word. I will always remember the time she opened her home to me when I became a mother for the first time — a gift of love I will never forget. “When someone you love becomes a memory, that memory becomes a treasure.” She will always be one of mine. Forever with all my love! Monette

“ Her children called her Mama, and I called her Mama too not out of habit, but because she made me feel like family. She gave me advice as if I were one of her own, and because of her, I share a bond with her granddaughter like sisters. In her passing, I hope her family pauses the noise and remembers the harmony she created. She was our peace, our compass, and even now, she calls us to love above all else. That is her eternal legacy. My deepest sympathies to the Lowe Family, 🕊️💜👉

“ She was a force of love larger than life itself. At 93, she had given her name, her heart, and her home to children she birthed, fostered, and embraced. Over 25 grandchildren and great-grandchildren carry the legacy of her open arms. She was the quiet strength behind many, the unwavering shelter in storms, the provider of hope when it seemed impossible. She left this world on Memorial Day, fittingly, because she was a living memorial of grace and sacrifice. To her children: may every tear remind you how blessed you were to call her yours. She lived as though heaven was already here, and now she's simply gone home " Up yonder!"💜 My Deepest Sympathies To The Lowe Family I Am Truly Sorry For Your Loss. 🕊️
