Barkley Clowers was born April 1, 1928 in Lamar County, GA, the second of eight children to the late Ornard and Bessie Cole Barkley. Mandy Clowers entered into eternal rest on October 18, 2014 after having lived a full life. She was preceded in death by her loving daughter, Annie Lois Clowers, her parents Ornard and Bessie Cole Barkley and her Siblings; Clarence Barkley and George Barkley. Mandy Started her walk with God at an early age as a member of Unionville United Methodist Church in Barnesville, GA. In her youth, she exhibited the characteristics of an independent person with spiritual values that would be the foundation for an exceptional life. Her career with the Griffin Spaulding County School System earned her recognition as an extremely hard worker. Her hard work was also displayed in how she cared for her home and yard. Mandy touched many lives with her warm smile, out-going personality and generous spirit. Mandy leaves many fond memories and will be cherished by her devoted son, Arthur L. Clowers; daughter-in-law, Bertha Clowers; grandson, Alex Clowers; great granddaughter, Alexandria Clowers; sisters, Nanniel Fears (George), Clyde

Etheridge, Marie Barkley, Laura Barkley; brother, Roy Barkley (Mildred); sister-in-laws, Ethel Barkey, Catherine Barkley; an aunt, Mamie Evans, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends." The redeemed of the Lord shall return and come with singing unto Zion and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads. They shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and mourning shall flee"
