

Mrs. Marcelle Camille Hodge

July 18, 1924 - September 21, 2020

Marcelle Camille Hodge was born July 14, 1924 in French Culdesac on the island of St Martin, West Indies. She was the 9th of 10 children born to Alice and Alfred Hodge. Her father was a Lay Methodist Pastor who was the backbone of the family and the village. Her mother was the 1st elder. Marcelle and siblings held offices in the church. The Hodge family was very active in the church and in their village. Marcelle was a teacher and Superintendent at Sunday School which was kept under a Tamarind Tree in the neighbor's yard. There was no Methodist Church in Culdesac so Marcelle and her family walked approximately 10 miles to the Methodist Church in Grand Case after Sunday School for church services.

Marcelle actively helped in the home by cleaning, washing and cooking for her parents and siblings.

Marcelle attended Ecole de Culdesac (French School of Culdesac) Elementary School and later transferred to Grand Case High School. She completed all grades of school at age 17 years. She served as a Substitute Teacher before and after graduation from the High School.

At the age of 18, Marcelle got married to Maurice Constant Hodge. Four months later her father passed. She had a son named Maurice Jr. on May 1st, the same birthday of his father, Maurice Sr. Soon after, another child was born. Her name was Gloria. Unfortunately, she died when she was three months old.

Marcelle accepted the Adventist message at 21 years old. She was baptized in Anguilla British West Indies. Sabbath School was kept under the Tamarind tree and church service was held in her mother's house because there was no Adventist church on the island. The Advent message just came on the island through a colporteur named Brother James. The first person to accept the message on the island was Marcelle's older sister, Pierrette. She introduced the message to the family.

Adventist teachers from the island of Guadeloupe came to St Martin to teach in the school. They also joined the church services in Marcelle's home and fellowshiped together.

Marcelle migrated to Aruba, Netherland Antilles with her husband Maurice who everyone called Constant. In Aruba, Marcelle had 3 other children; Neville, her son, and 2 daughters, Patricia and Laverna. Constant worked at Lago Oil Refinery and the family lived in their own home which Constant built. Even though they were in Aruba, Marcelle continued to support the Adventist group financially in St Martin, and later the 1st Seventh-Day Adventist Church on the island of St Martin was built, literally by the members of the church. A member of the church donated the land.

After her husband was laid off from the oil refinery the entire family migrated to the United States. They lived in Brooklyn, New York. The family was sponsored by a family member and became citizens of the United States. Marcelle and her children became active members of the Brooklyn Temple SDA Church. Marcelle served as a leader of the primary division for 32 years. As a result of her teaching and devotion to the Lord, her children grew up singing songs of faith and deeply rooting their hearts in Jesus. Eventually each of the Hodge children became adults, married, and began raising families of their own.

Unfortunately, her oldest son Maurice Jr. passed away on January 20, 1987. In 1989, Marcelle and Constant retired and returned to their island of birth, St Martin West Indies.

Once again Marcelle became active in the Culdesac SDA Church in French St. Martin, and served in any way she could; as elder, treasurer, superintendent, children's division teacher and leader, soloist and pianist. On December 29, 1998, after many years in retirement together, Maurice Constant Hodge Sr., the patriarch of the Hodge family, passed away.

In 2006, due to increasing health issues, Marcelle moved permanently to Ellenwood, GA to live with her youngest daughter, Laverna Davidson, who became her caregiver. Soon after she became a member of Mountainside SDA Church.

Marcelle was a major Cornerstone for the family. Many of the family members, both young and old, kept in contact with her through the years. She loved, shared, comforted, and willingly gave what she had to help any and everyone. On Monday, September 21, 2020 at 10:51am, Marcelle Hodge fell asleep in Jesus.

Marcelle Hodge is survived by her children, Patricia Boodram, Neville Hodge, Laverna Davidson, her brother Isidore, sister Pierette, grandchildren, great grandchildren, a great, great grand child, nieces, nephews, and a host of cousins and friends. We are proud to share in her legacy, and celebrate the Christ centered and sacrificial life that she lived, with the hope that we will see her again in the earth made new!

“ I express my heartfelt condolences at the passing of your mother/grandmother, Marcelle Hodge. It was an honor, a privilege, a grand opportunity to have known such a beautiful God-fearing servant of the Lord. Memories of her kindness, gentleness, sweetness, her words of spiritual encouragement and just being in her graceful presence, will always resonate within my many recalls of her. When we all get to heaven, what a day of rejoicing that will be. When we all see Jesus, we'll sing and shout the victory. May God comfort and sustain each of you during your time of loss.

“ Mother let start first by saying that I love you so very much. You were there for me when my mom passed away. You would call be everyday seven days a week to see if I was ok. It was a very hard time for me and you were always there. You would always say Bessie you still have a mother here with you because you and Marie are my daughter's also. When you moved to St. Martin and you would tell me Bessie I miss my son I would say ok Neville pack your bags you are going to see mom because she miss you. So it became a regular thing for us. She miss him he traveled. I will miss y'all my to you and laughter on our phone conversations. You would always ask Neville when he called how is Bessie and where is she. I love mom always.

“ To the Chin, Davidson & Hodge Families,

It is with great sorrow that I express my heartfelt condolences at the passing of your mother/grandmother Sis. Hodges. She was a light to so many over the years. I remember going to her home to visit as well as to partake with and her family in the Communion Service, tremendous joy emanated from as she recalled the blessings of the Lord in so many ways.

One thing she would always talk about in our conversations is her looking forward to the coming of our Redeemer and King. I will always remember Sis. Hodges in a happy way for she was indeed such a precious soul. I look forward with all of you to seeing her in the earth made new.

We thank God for His Blessed Assurance and the Hope that we live by. If there's any way that I can assist & minister to your family please let me know. May God comfort you with His Comfort and with His Peace. 🙏

To my dear friend & sister, Laverna. I will miss Sis Hodge, my friend. I will miss the wonderful chats we used to have. I will miss that when I come to your home, Sis Hodge would be the first person I meet on the front porch, and I would ask her what she's doing, her comment would be: "girl I'm doing my crossword puzzles, so as to keep my mind active." Thank God for such a wonderful soul. I want to meet her in Heaven. Yvonne Tull.

“ Condolences to the Hodge Family and Peace to All,

We share with you during your time of sorrow. What I remember about Sis. Hodge was a spiritual woman of faith, well planned, heartfelt, Sabbath school programs, nothing done half-way... Oh and there was the delicious cakes and cooking. I remember when your plate was empty, she would ask, " Have you had enough, do you want some more?" Then there was the singing Hodge family, who could forget those days! And then a most beautiful French accent, so I'm going to end this way..

Reposez bien Sis. Hodge, parce que le prochaine fois que vous ouvrez votre yeux, sur cet Grand Matin, ce sera pour voir le visage de ton Sauveur Jesus-Christ, Amen! Maranatha! Et au revoir pour l'instant!

*Rest Well, Sis Hodge, because the next time that you open your eyes, on that Great Morning, it will be to see the face of our Saviour Jesus Christ, Amen! Maranatha!
And Goodbye for now..*

*God be with you all,
