

Marcus L. Reese

November 17, 2017

Marcus L. Reese, Co-Founder & Principal for Corporate Environmental Risk Management, LLC (CERM), passed away on November 21, 2017 after a gallant battle with cancer. He was 53 years old.

Mr. Reese was born in Mobile, Alabama where he also began his professional career at BCM Engineers, Inc. and later relocated to Los Angeles, California where he served as a staff engineer from 1988 – 1992. In 1992, he joined EQ Services, Inc. (as subsidiary of Equitable Real Estate Investment Management) as an Environmental Specialist. In 1995, he formed Corporate Environmental Risk Management, LLC (CERM) with his partner and was involved in running the day-to-day operations while providing strategic corporate management and project planning for the firm. Through his leadership, the business has grown into an award-winning engineering and program management firm.

Mr. Reese was an avid tennis player and served as a member of the USTA and ALTA Tennis associations. He was also a dedicated and loyal Board Member of the South DeKalb Family YMCA and was committed to expanding opportunities for children in the areas of science and technology.

Mr. Reese is survived by his wife of 21 years Arlene; their children, Tayla, Nia-Michelle and Malik; parents Russell and Patricia Reese; sister Darrylne

Reese; and a host of relatives and friends.

“ Born a blessing, bound for glory. Earthly life ended but not his story.

All touched by his spirit or nourished by his care our grief now dampened by experience shared.

As we go forward, family, clients, and friends, move in the greater Spirit so his memory won't end.

Dedicated to the memory of Marcus L. Reese from his tennis teammate, Alan J. Giles, "Designated Old Guy"
