

Marcus Thomas

October 30, 1979 - June 26, 2022

Marcus Damon Thomas was born on October 30, 1979, in Decatur, GA. Marcus was the third born to Patricia Ann Thomas and the late John B. Thomas Sr. He was the baby of the family.

Marcus accepted Christ at an early age and joined Mt. Ephraim Baptist Church. As an adult, Marcus joined Beulah Missionary Baptist Church, under the leadership of Reverend Jerry D. Black.

Marcus graduated from Southwest Dekalb Highschool in 1999. He was an active member of the band and this passion continued throughout his life. Marcus joined Nextel/Sprint/T-Mobile in 2001, where he had many accomplishments; one was winning the Circle of Excellence Award in 2019.

Marcus lived his life to fullest with no regrets. He loved his family, friends, and co-workers with passion. Marcus was a kind and loving man who made each person he met feel like family. Marcus enjoyed marching bands, music, dancing, trying new cuisines, sporting events, real estate, and most of all he loved his family.

On June 26, 2022, Marcus succumbed to complications from stage 4 pancreatic cancer. His loving mother, Patricia Ann Thomas, and two siblings, John and Relia Thomas, and other family members were by his as he transitioned. Though this is sad, his family and friends truly celebrate the time they had with him on this earth.

Marcus leaves behind a legacy of love for his family and friends. He loved Issys May with all his heart and the May/Paige family. He leaves a host of friends and co-workers who will miss him dearly. Most of all he leaves a mother, who has strong faith and knows she will see her baby boy again. His big brother will struggle with him not being here on earth, but he knows he also knows he will see him again. Marcus' sister will miss him and cannot wait to laugh with him again.

Marcus was a son, a brother, and a friend to many who will miss him, but never forget him. May you rest in peace until we see you again, Mawt (his nick name from Mom). We love you and miss your quick wit, beautiful bright eyes, and loving spirit.

“ I have been waiting for some time to post because I just did not want to say good bye!
Marcus and I met when we both worked for Sprint, some years ago and we had remained really close friends to the end. I dont ever remember a time when we had not spoken to one another, whether we were telling one another to stop working, or to just saying we were checking on one another.
There are so many things I can say about Marcus and share with everyone but the biggest take away I want everyone to know is that, Marcus was a true definition of a "unconditional" friend. We discussed work, family, love, food, and learning to enjoy and love life. He never judged me, nor I him. Marcus was always there when I needed him and I hope I was the same for him. Marcus loved his family and he was a true definition of a dedicated-father. I made him a part of my family and he made me a part of his.
My soul is at peace only because I know he was at peace. Family, keep his memory alive and know that he loved you all so very much! It's because of him that we love you too. His transitioning may seem like a heavy load to bear at times but just know that it gets easier little by little one day. You will smile again, you will laugh again, and in doing so, you learn to enjoy and love life the way he would have wanted you to.
Sending prayers of peace, strength, and love!

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Marcus’ family today and in the coming days. I pray for God’s strength and comfort for you as you relish in the love and memories that he’s left you with. Marcus and I worked together for many years at Sprint (now T-Mobile) and his personality and sense of humor were magnetic. He was such a proud Dad and often spoke of his baby girl. The love that he has for his family is unmatched and is evident in his sharing stories of them.

Rest well, My Friend.

“ I want to send my deepest condolences to the Thomas family. I worked with Marcus at Nextel (Sprint) that's where we met. He always greeted you with a smile and made you laugh he was a total Vibe. I just seen you a couple of months ago at Walmart we always would cross path there for some reason. He was so upbeat he left no clues of the internal battle he was fighting. We laughed and talked about traveling, retirement, business ownership, family, and Babygirl graduating soon...he was so proud :-). I just can't believe it My heart is broken it is rare you meet genuine, kind, and honest people in this lifetime, but when you do hold on tight to them, check on them when they cross your mind, have brunch just be present because tomorrow is not promised. Life is precious and Marcus you will always have a piece of my Heart. Rest well my friend. I know Heaven is smiling. Love, Kenyatta

“ My deepest and heartfelt condolences to the Thomas Family, of whom I known and loved for more than 40 years. I met Marcus when he was 2 years old, standing up in the front seat of his mother's car (rolling his eyes at me...LoL). I saw him grow to be a respectable young man, loving his sister and brother, but especially his mother. From a toddler to monastery school and beyond, he was always the same, keeping a smile on your face with his sense of humor!

I know that you'll be missed from this place Marcus by so many people who knew and loved you dearly. The bible tells us "To be absent from the body, is to be present with God." I know you're seated around God's throne keeping the angels laughing hysterically. Take your rest my young friend & brother until that day when we all get together to see Jesus! Until we meet again...

you to be authentic at all times. I appreciate every minute and every day that I was

I will miss my friend Marcus dearly! We shared so many good times and talks over the phone at work. He taught me everything I know on the job from the first time we met. He loved the cookies that I made each Christmas which he always shared with his family! He was such a great loving person and I cannot imagine he will no longer be with us on the earth. I too, will see him again one day! I pray for faith and strength for his family!!! Much Love for you Marcus!!!
