“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. God is aware of your sorrow and "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in the resurrection when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). God always keeps his promises!

“ May the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials, bring unceasing strength to the family and friends during this time of sorrow.

God hates death; and those who pass on, Jehovah keeps in his memory because they are precious in his eyes. So, continue to call on Him in your time of grief. My sincerest condolences. - Psalms 116:1, 2; 15 “ Offering my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Margaret Arnold. Imagine a life in a world where all sickness and physical infirmities will be done away with! Gods word the bible assure us at Isaiah 33:24 that there will come a time when "No resident will say: 'I am sick.'" Also, Isaiah 25:8 promises that God will actually "swallow up death forever." Death is never easy to face but I hope this will bring you all a little comfort.

“ *My condolences to Ms. Margaret Arnold family May the God of all comfort be with this family during this sad time. And this scripture at (Rev. 21:4) says God will wipe out every tear from there eyes and death will be no neither mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore the former things have passed away.

“ *My sincere condolences to the Family. We can put full trust in what the Bible says about the dead living again because God is the one who gave life to all living creatures so he certainly is capable of restoring life to someone who has died (Acts 17:24,25).
