

Margaret Sharon Hicks

November 7, 1937 - March 13, 2025

Apostle Margaret Sharon Hicks transitioned peacefully to her eternal rest on March 13, 2025, at the age of 91, at the home of her daughter in Covington, Georgia. Apostle Hicks was born in Polk County, Georgia, to the late Maggie Sue Boozer Ammons and Allen Ammons.

From an early age, Apostle Hicks felt the call of God on her life, which led her to become an ordained pastor under the leadership of Pastor H. G. Jeter. Her ministry began to grow as she spread the word of God, teaching others the love and wisdom that she cherished. Apostle's faith was the foundation of her life, and her commitment to sharing the gospel never wavered, even the face of hardship.

For over 40 years, Apostle Hicks served as the guiding light and pastor of the Standing Up Saints for the Messiah Full Gospel & Deliverance Church, leading her congregation with unwavering faith and compassion. Her sermons resonated with both wisdom and warmth, offering hope and solace to all who sought spiritual guidance.

Beyond the walls of the church, Apostle Hicks' influence extended far and wide. She was a beacon of hope for those facing adversity, a tireless deliverer, and champion of the downtrodden. Her unwavering confidence in the Word of God, her determination and commitment to the deliverance of all people from demonic control by the Holy Spirit, and her unyielding obedience to the Lord Jesus Christ were a testament to her unwavering faith in God.

Apostle Hicks' legacy of love, faith and resilience will live on in the hearts of those who knew her. She is survived by her children, Min. Kenneth (Demetrica) Hicks, Mrs. Janice (Oscar) Price, Mrs. Monica (Kenneth) Colfield, Pastor Constance English, and Ms. Lauri Reemal; her sister, Mrs. Alice (Joe) Diamond, her brothers, Mr. Joseph (Majorie) Ammons and Mr. James Ammons. Apostle Hicks also leaves behind a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren as well as cherished nieces and nephews, along with a host of great-nieces and great-nephews. Apostle Hicks was preceded in death by her husband, Deacon Willie C. Hicks, her son, William A. Hicks, as well as her parents and several brothers and sisters.
