“ *Aunt Margaree was a sweet and joyful spirit. She loved to laugh and have fun as much as possible. I remember being a child visiting her in Bishopville South Carolina and looking forward to going to her house to visit with her and my cousins. She welcomed me with open arms each and every time. It was always a joy to see her face light up whenever she saw a friend or family member. She gave her full undivided attention and enjoyed fellowship with the people she loved. I miss her dearly and I pray her children and grandchildren find joy and strength in her memories that she left with so many people. I love you Aunt Margaree and will never forget you. “ Mom..

Jannita Johnson said she get her strength from you. Well I got “heart of gold” from you. You’ve taught me many many life lessons but the main ones that are close to my heart are:

“ Always keep my head up! Be kind to others, and Your blessings come in the way you treat people.

Your legacy will continue to live through me. I love you always 💕. Rest in heaven
