“ There are no words to express the sorrow in our hearts. Please accept our deepest sympathy. In just a little while all of the pain and sorrow that we feel from the death of our love one will cease and be replaced with joy, because the former things have passed away. ”

“ Dear Motley Family: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. May the love and support of family and friends comfort you greatly during this difficult time. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope to see our loved ones again right here on earth by means of the resurrection. “There will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous.” May you have peace as you think about this beautiful hope for the future.

“ I remember as a child coming to New York during the summer and Aunt Ann would be one of the first relatives to greet me with a warm smile and a loving hug. She always always made me feel welcome and a part of the Motley family. One particular Summer Holy Tabernacle Church was having a banquet and she and Aunt Louise made sure that I could attend after convincing my father that they would look after me. She purchased a ticket and an outfit for me to wear to the banquet. Thank you so much for your warm heart and tender smile. You will be missed. Always in our heart!
