

Margaret Elizabeth White

August 24, 1925 - December 24, 2022

MARGARET ELIZABETH WHITE was born August 24, 1925 in Cincinnati, Ohio to Ella and James Taylor. At age one, she and her family moved to Chicago, Illinois, where she spent her formative years. Margaret was a proud graduate of Wendell Phillips High School and later became an employee of Sears Roebuck and Company, where she met her future husband, Elvin White.

The two were united in holy matrimony on May 25, 1947. To that union were born two children, Elvin Jr. and Janet Susan.

Margaret was a devoted employee of the University of Chicago, where she worked as Office Manager for Student Health/Mental Health Services.

Margaret loved to travel and was blessed to spend the summer of 1968 in Europe with her daughter, Janet.

Margaret also loved Asian art, and in her later years revealed her own artistic talent for drawing by creating original pieces and a line of greeting cards, It's A Margo.

Margaret was preceded in death by her husband and son, Elvin Sr. and Elvin Jr. but leaves to cherish her memory daughter, Janet; grandchildren Kenneth, Korey, Geoffrey, Justin, Jehan, Marrenda and Brittany; great-grandchildren Joshua, Julian, Jaylen, Khayli, Austyn, Jaxon, Maximus, Lennix and Ava; and a wealth of loved ones and friends.

“ My family and I send God's Light and Love to surround, protect and comfort the family of Margaret White. She was the loving mother of my best and first friend that I've known since we were both five years old. Our families shared many joys and sorrows over the years and now I pray her soul finds rest and peace for eternity. I'll forever cherish your lovely cards that mirrored your vibrant view of life, art and design. That's the woman I knew and will always remember.
