“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mrs. Marie Charles. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort and hope in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ Please except my condolences for the loss of your loved one Marie. I know this is a difficult time. May our Heavenly Father Jehovah , the God of comfort grant you peace now and in the days ahead. "throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you" (1Peter 5:7) Please be comforted in your treasured memories of Marie, and knowing you have the hope of being reunited with her again. (Acts 24:15)

“ The pain of a loved one falling asleep in death can become intense to those left behind, even our lord Jesus himself wept when his friend died. Our God Jehovah felt that pain as well as he watched on as Jesus died for us (John 3:16)
The death of Jesus made it possible for us to be resurrected. John 5:28,29 "say that the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tomb will hear his voice and come out." Please let this promise bring you the peace and hope that you deserve.

“ I offer condolences and Scriptural comfort to the family and friends of Mrs. Charles. As you all look ahead, please keep in mind that God has already made a provision to raise up ones sleeping in death..."God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). Jesus assures us: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25)
