“ To the family of Rev. Davis, affectionally called Rev. Sugar because she was SOOOOOO SWEET to everyone she knew; I am just realizing that she has received her wings. I dreamed of her a few nights ago and just thought about her again this morning. I am so sorry that I did not know and was not able to attend her homegoing services. I am grateful that I was able to let her know several years ago how much I loved and appreciated her for so many things; wisdom, prayers, devotion, concern, sincerity, love and those great hugs she used to give me...she just felt safe. Blessings to her family, friends and members of St. Paul AME Covington. Peace be upon us all.

“ To: The Family, Rev. Marie Fuller-Davis is missed! We find comfort in knowing: To be absent from the body is to be present with the LORD. Rev. Davis was a Believer of God and a Prayer Warrior, and I was glad God placed me under her leadership in 2 of the church' ministries: Caregivers and Greeters. There was never a time she would call or text me and ask me to either read a scripture or take minutes that I would say no. Whenever she called, she would always say, "Margaret, this is Rev. Davis." I felt honored to be asked by a true woman of God to help in the ministries. To God be the glory for putting me in the path of our beloved, The Late Reverend Marie Fuller Davis's 'path -of-life.' Transitioned from earth to glory, but will not be forgotten.. 🙏💕 Margaret & John Stokes, Greeters Her Sunday School student Dorothy Robinspn

“ I am so saddened to learn of Rev. Davis's passing. She was so focused and determined to finish her degree at Georgia Piedmont College, and afterwards, she transferred to Georgia State. It was her lifelong goal. We talked about her hometown in Florida, living in New York, working with the seniors in Covington. It was a joy to know her and assist her at the Student Success Center.

My condolences to her family.

“ Rev. Davis is one of the sweetest people I've ever met..strong, stern and caring, a mentor, a friend, a God-fearing woman. There were many nights I kept her up past her bedtime, on the phone lending an ear and giving me guidance and reassurance. She called me Sue and she would always remind me "it's going to be alright ". I'm going to miss this lady! Family you are in my prayers. God be with you. It's going to be alright.

My heart is broken into pieces as I reflect on my memory of and close association with Rev, Marie Davis . Rev. Davis worked for me as a van driver for the Senior Center at Turner Lake for several years before her retirement . She was an extremely focused and caring person who loved and respected people especially the elderly ..She ministered daily to all who reached out to her . My prayers and love goes out to her family .
