“ Thank you for your grace, your smile and warmth. What I will remember most is how you turned a most difficult situation (coming to NYC) and providing the best way you could. That was impressive. Rest Well Auntie.

“ I recall the first time I met your mom.... It was at the burial for Papa, the kids great grandfather. She was very warm, sweet and kind.... The last time I saw her was for Barbara’s 50th birthday party! That warm was just radiating! I’m blessed for having known her if only for those few times! She will be fondly remembered and missed 🙏🕊

“ Though brief, my encounters with Ms Marie have been nothing but pleasant and delightful. Her smile lights up an entire room. Of note was her love for music and dancing. I recall Ms. Marie being in pain one evening while trying to maneuver with her walker. When she heard the melodic rhythm of a familiar song, she forgot everything about the pain and started rocking her hips to the music. It was beautiful to see. You will be missed Ms. Marie. You are no longer in pain, rest easy in the arms of the Father.

“ My dearest Tati, the time came for you to be with your maker. I miss you already.

It saddens me to know that I will no longer see your pretty face or hear your jovial voice live again. I will miss that warm welcome you always gave me whenever you saw me.

It feels good to know that I was one of your favorite nieces. You always told me 😊 You were also one of my favorites. I wish I told you more often. I wish I were in a position to spend more time with you especially during your last days. Please forgive me.

I have this vision of uncle Charlie, Tante Yvette and my dad welcoming you up there. That gives me some kind of solace. Tell my dad that I miss him and wish that he would visit me more often 😭.

Rest in power my sweet Tante Marie Came. You will never be forgotten. I love you and I miss you. 😘😇🙏

“ I first met “Manmie” when I went to say hi to Martine at her house. From the moment I laid eyes on her, Mrs. Mallet showered me with joy, love and warmth. She was a beautiful woman with a kind spirit and smiled with her entire soul. She will be deeply missed in the world. I am so blessed and grateful that I got a chance to know her, chat with her, laugh with her and simply got to be in her presence. May her beloved spirit rest in eternal peace, love and light.

“ I remember how she would always get so excited to see me when I would visit when I was younger. She loved me so deeply even if we had a language barrier she always tried her best to talk to me. I miss watching her dance with her walker whenever music was on. Her smile was one of the most beautiful things I’ve ever seen. I’ll miss her dearly.....i love you grandma.

“ Marie Came Mallet aka Mommy will forever be missed. You would never find a more loving and giving and kinder soul. I will miss her warm, smiles, and her manny funny and interesting stories. This is a woman who always put other peoples well-being before hers. She would overwhelmingly be concerned if you ate food for the day. I will miss how she always wore her heart on her sleeves. She was truly my mother-in-love ❤️.

I will forever Love you Mommy
