“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Marion Virginia Mack. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort and hope in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ To Marion's loved ones: Allow Jehovah's comforting words found in Rev 21:4 to bring you peace. It says he will wipe of every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more. neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.....

“ My sincere condolences on the loss of your dear Marion. Please take comfort in Gods' Own promise to bring our dead loved ones back to life. This is no mere fantasy. Our Heavenly Father Resurrected eight persons in Bible times and had these events witnessed by many, and documented in His Word)Mark 5:38-43). These being a fore gleam of not only His ability to do accomplish this, but His desire to do so. Jesus speaks about a future, global Resurrection when he tells us at John 5:28-29, in part, ...the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear His, voice and come out..... This will be to a Paradise earth, where sickness, sorrow and death are a thing of the past (Psalms 37:9-11,29. Isaiah 33:24, Rev. 21:4). Until that day, may this wonderful hope, and your treasured memories of Marion sooth much of the heartbreak you must surely be experiencing. God always keeps His promises! (Titus 1:2). Mrs. D. “ My condolences go out to the entire family. Though I have no ties to the deceased or family, I would still like to leave a comforting thought. It is very hard to lose a cherished loved one. Please take great comfort in knowing that you all have the opportunity to see your loved one again. God will call and they will answer! (John 5:28,29)
