“ To the family of Mr. Maurius D. Williams,It is with my most deepest sympathy that your beloved has made a transition at such an early age. Your loss is great, but know that many prayers and petitions to God on your behalf have been made. Jehovah remembers those who have fallen asleep in death and he has made promises that we will see them again if we live our lives to do his will. God is your strength and your might. Along with other family and friends you will be made strong again. With Deepest Sympathy, Cheryl Richard & Family
