

Marjorie C. Barnette

July 18, 1943 - March 2, 2019

Marjorie Carmelita Barnette was born on July 18th 1943 to the late Elizabeth and Leonard Glasgow in Trinidad and Tobago. Marjorie was the third oldest child of four siblings.

Marjorie was united in Holy Matrimony to Andrew Barnette on April 1, 1978. To that union were born; four sons', Avery Barnette, Steven Barnette, Andrew Barnette Jr., Bertram Barnette and one daughter, Dalilah Glasgow.

Marjorie was very family oriented. She loved and lived for her family. She was a loving and most kind person. When Marjorie hugged you, it was a long hug. It took awhile for her to let go. She loved everyone, prayed for everyone and even for those she did not know. She loved interior decorating, sewing and cooking. She lived life to the fullest enjoying family and friends. Most of all she loved the Lord. Marjorie and her husband Andrew joined Big Miller Grove Missionary Baptist Church in 2010.

On Saturday, March 2, 2019 Marjorie answered God's call to eternal rest. It was all in God's plan for her time on this Earth to end. Her work for the Lord was completed here on earth and to be continued in heaven with him.

The beautiful legacy of Marjorie Barnette will forever be remembered by her family and friends. She has left a tremendous impact on their lives and hearts. She has moved on to eternal life with our Lord and Savior but she will forever be in our hearts; gone but not forgotten. We have a lifetime of memories to cherish a vision of her smile that she left us with to remember and the warmth of the hugs that she gave us. Left to cherish her memories are her husband

Andrew Barnette of 40 years and 11 months, four sons; Avery Barnette, Steven Barnette, Andrew Barnette Jr. and Bertram Barnette. One daughter, Dalilah Glasgow. Two sisters; Anne Waters and Noleen Phillip. One brother, who preceded her in death, Shelford Phillip. Five uncles, three aunts, one brother-in-law, one sister-in-law, fourteen grand children, 3 great grandchildren, six nephews, seven nieces, most cherished friends Wilma, Bernadette, Verena and a host of other relatives and friends.
