“ I meet Mark in Ola Crossing. He was a very friendly mail carrier. He was always smiling. We talk on occasion, and we would laugh and joke. When I was in the process of moving I told him he should come to Locust Grove to deliver mail in my neighborhood. He always talked about his family and how much he loved them. His grandchildren was the apple of his eye. I spoke to Mark just a few days before his surgery and he was in good spirits. I was devastated when I heard he had passed. So sad to lose a friend and a good person.
I'm sending my condolences and prayers to his wife and family.

Mark was our friend and mail carrier for many years, we looked forward to seeing him every day, such a wonderful, kind spirit and always so joyful!!

He would sometimes bring our mail in to the garage and leave it on the table for us, he definitely let his light shine.

He is missed so so much, one of a kind, loved his family and his job.

We will continue to lift his family up in prayer for the days ahead.

Rest In Heaven dear friend
