“ My little Marky Mark....he was one of the most loyal and selfless friends I have ever had. He would give you the shirt off his back if you needed it. He helped me more times than I can count with my daughter, with my air conditioning, with our cars. Mark was also my entertainment! He loved to laugh at himself and he always did a great job at pretending that I was funny. We also shared a bond over coffee and who could find the strongest coffee for each other. lol. I will miss his hugs, his thoughtfulness, and even his dedication to his early bedtime. Mark made my world more beautiful.
