“ I have known Marlon most of his life. His mother taught both of my kids in Elementary School & we worked together for years on the Education Committee & The Youth Summer Feeding and Enrichment Program at the historic Bethlehem Baptist Church in Covington, Georgia, as I served as the First President & Director of both Groups. His Mother, Miriam B. Wilkins, succeeded me, and did a great job. His dad, Milton Mason, worked with me too, on The Education Committee. His dad, Milton, was very dedicated, too. I am saddened by his Homegoing. I considered Marlon to be a part of my family, too. Rest in Peace & Power, Marlon.

“ I did not have the pleasure of meeting Marlon but I spoke to him on the phone regarding the hiring of my daughter. She started at Microtek and has been very successful in the medical field thanks to Marlon giving a new graduate and opportunity. He will be missed!
