Obituary**

Mrs. Marguerite D. Cole was born July 10, 1938 to Roscoe Lineberger and Audrey Drummond in Winston Salem, North Carolina. She attended Reynolds High School and later graduated from Winston-Salem Teacher's College (Winston-Salem State University) in 1967 with a degree in English. Marguerite married Billy Gene Cole on December 9, 1960. From this union, Marguerite was blessed with her one and only child, Tracey Chouteau (née Cole). Shortly after giving birth, she and Tracey relocated to the West Coast. There, she began an illustrious career in education. She dedicated her life to teaching for almost 40 years, with 31 of those years as a high school English teacher. While in California, Marguerite created many memories and made many friendships. Her involvement with the Eagle Saints at Calvary Christian Center left an indelible impression on the church as well as the community at large. In 2011, she relocated to Conyers, GA and joined the Victorious Life Church where she was a member of the Young at Heart Senior Group. She became part of a loving neighborhood that supported and loved her. Marguerite was a businesswoman, an educator, and a visionary. She loved to travel and shared photographic memories of her many travels. Whether she was teaching or traveling, she ministered through the Word, love, and making people laugh. Her eclectic personality and quote-worthy statements made her a one-of-a-kind person whose presence will forever be remembered. On October 19, 2018, God called Marguerite to her Heavenly Home. She is now rejoicing with those who preceded her in death, her parents and daughter; granddaughter, Myah Cole; brothers, Roy and Walter Drummond; sister, Delores Drummond; and a nephew Hamza Abdul-Malik Drummond. Marguerite is survived by her grandson, Jaye Cole, Atlanta, GA; granddaughter Alexandria Alford, Charlotte, NC; sister, Rev. Barbara Richardson, Tampa, FL; greatgrandchildren, Jaizhia Cole, Arionne Cole, Trinity Cole, Morgan Woodruff, Ma'Shai Woodruff, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and loved ones.

“ Marquerite was like a sister to Leona (Hightower) Collins and me. We chatted often and would visit each other whenever we could. Marquerite loved her family and friends dearly. We will surely miss her and we will keep the family in prayer.
