“ I met you and that grouchy face six years ago and never thought I would consider you a friend. I will miss the good talks we would have at work. Heaven finally needed a hard headed angel and it got one lol!....I will comfort myself in the sounds of your laughter and the thoughts of what peace you must finally be in now! Rest in eternal happiness and PEACE!

“ I remember how we used to always act like brother and sister. We always managed to stay friends regardless of the situations that may have occurred. You have always been a strong woman to me. I want you to know that you will always be missed, and loved. Death may indeed be final but the love we share while living is eternal.

“ I offer condolences and encouragement to the family and friends of Ms. Hindsman. Please keep in mind...God sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world that we might gain life through him. ~1 John 4:9. Jesus confirms his role in this loving provision when he said: I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.. ~John 11:25

“ For some reason all I can think about is your laughter. The times you'd find me laughing, and laugh because I was laughing, and say, Girl, you crazy! I'm happy to say that my memories of you are those with a smile on your face. You were a pleasure to know. I can't believe you're gone. You will be greatly missed. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal.
