“ She adopted me when I was 8 and fought to get me off medication gave me a home and loved me when I couldn't love myself. She was a mother to a motherless child....the holidays will never be the same...I wish I could just pick up the phone and tell you I love you and get advice on what to do as life tosses me around I just wish I could just run into your arms and just cry...I wasn't the best child growing up and if I could take it back I would
But I cant but our last conversation you told me to get my life together and get my place for my children and mama im trying....im fighting like hell...life hasn't been kind since you left.....a emptiness thatcant be filled and I still ask myself whyy..how...im mad you left me behindso suddenly... I don't think I'll ever recover from this

“ My name is Latwana and Ms Laverne tutored my grandson Zane on Saturdays and from the moment we meet her she was a joy and we knew she was about business when it comes to teaching. She made a positive change in his life and the way he viewed school and learning, in a matter of weeks. He started making A(s) and B(s). She has made a lasting impression that's unmatched. I enjoyed her hot topics for the week. I going to miss her laughter. She had a beautiful spirit that made a tremendous impact on us in a short period of time. Just imagine if we had years. She is missed.

“ I'm going to miss our long conversations about our neighborhood and her making me drink those disgusting healthy concoctions. She educated many children over the years and shared funny stories with me about her teaching journey. She earned her wings. Rest well in paradise Laverne. Love Erica
