“ Today, I remember Martha with fondness and gratitude. She always had a "project" of some sort underway. Sometimes it was a person, other times it was an event like a Community Interdenominational Gospel Concert. We had many spiritual chats over several years. This past summer, she told me that I had been selected to help her with her Trust Project. She had been doing lots of thinking about the difference between trust and faith, and was convinced that, as a Christian, it all comes down to trust. In the last few months of 2018, Martha became the Trust Project. As evidence, I have numerous texts that she sent me proclaiming her trust in God to the very end. My thoughts and prayers are with Martha's family members, whom she often spoke of and loved very much.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to the family of Martha. My heart is overwhelm with grief. We grew up serving at Fellowship mb church in Chicago under Rev Clay Evan's. I remember what talent she had She blessed so many ministries at our church She not only was gifted she was kind full of the fruits of the spirit She was lovable and would help anybody. She was a angel sent to us by God. We believe God loaned her to us for a little while and left her life and legacy for all of us to follow. Love you girl always in my heart. Brenda Ested

“ Dear Hurse Family: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. May the love and support of family and friends comfort you greatly during this difficult time. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope to see our loved ones again right here on earth by means of the resurrection. “There will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous “. May you have peace as you think about this beautiful hope for the future.
