“ My deepest condolences to the Boone family. Mr. Boone was a str8 up kinda guy. He guided me and taught me the skills of commercial building inspections at the city of Atlanta. A true friend. So glad we talked and you told me not to worry and that you were ready whenever God calls you! Rest in peace my brother. I will miss you and our talks. Thank God you knew a man named Jesus! 🙏🙏

“ I am so sorry to hear that we have lost Marvin to that enemy death. He was a big brother to me and a good friend. My family (The Coley's) send our love to Sophia and the family. We are just a phone call away. Carolyn McDonald-Nelson and Coley Family

“ We are very sad to hear this. Sophia and Marvin have always been close our hearts as Big Sister and Big Brother. We mourn but not like those who have no Hope like we do in Jesus Christ. Fare thee well...

Everyone at Sumter High School, especially the Class of 1965, liked Marvin Boone. He was tough and he was kind. We were in a group of students who walked home from school together. Marvin made us laugh, kidded us but was always our protector if trouble arose. He was the best of human beings who I loved dearly and will forever miss hear him say "how ya doin"?
