“ To my Uncle Marvin who was always good and helpful to me. When I didn't have a job in Telecom he allowed me to work with him. He was the first to offer me help with my alcohol addiction and always encouraged me to get help. He will be greatly missed. I can't be there but my spirit is there for my cousin Marlina Brown-Banks, her husband Reggie, and Marvin's Grandkids, Noah, lil Reggie, and Imani. Bless the rest of the Brown family during this difficult time.....

“ Auntie Carolyn and Uncle James Thomas send our deepest sympathy to Marlina Banks and family, and the entire family of the late Marvin Brown.

The sun rose and set in his daughter, Marlina and his grandchildren, lol. He loved them unconditionally and with all his heart. The days ahead will be different but rejoice in the wonderful memories you shared and that God will see you through.

“ My friend, Marvin, was a great teammate and classmate at Decatur High School. I am very proud, as a fellow DHS Alumni, of his endeavors with helping youth throughout his life in sports, and life skills. R.I.P MY FRIEND.

Please accept my extended prayers, and condolences to his family. May God give you all peace, and comfort.

To the family of Coach Marvin Brown, I am so glad that this great man entered into so many young boys' lives. He gave them so much to look forward to, showed them where their potential lies within them and gave them a path. I hope and pray that the lives he touched will carry on with the hope and drive that he instilled in them. Coach Brown made my son feel so special when he was on the court. So I know he will be missed in my family as well as many others. Marlina I hope and pray that you and the rest of the family can get through this time of sorrow.

*Love,
Sheila/ Shannon# 24*

We've lost a real brother with real goals and ambitions. Marvin and I met at GA. State University and while I was employed at W.I.G.O radio an opportunity became available and Marvin was able to join the team. His dedication to youth basketball was second to none and he was very pleased with the growth of his grandson relative to a sport he really loved. Job well done Marvin, you've earned your wings and can now "Rest In Heaven".... Fast Eddie Thomas.
