“Marvin may you rest in peace my brother. Great memories and good times we shared while at Southern University A&M College in Baton Rouge, LA; and of course, while marching side-by-side as members of the “Ole School” Human Juke Box - trumpet section. My condolences and prayers to your family during their time of bereavement.

Dup, my Juke Brother, may our Lord and Savior receive your spirit and give you the 1st trumpet chair in his heavenly band. I will always remember your kindness and phenomenal talent my friend. May God Bless you and give comfort and strength to your remaining family. Until we march together again. (And Down) 🙏🙏🙏🎵🎶🎷💙💛

“ Thanks for being my mentor that became family. You were the one who understood me when no one else did. Thank you for always being there when I needed you the most and for always being you! I will cherish each and every memory and love you forever. Thanks for being the greatest Godmother a girl could ever need! I will always be your “babydoll”!

Love Always,
Tasha and the rest of your Smith family from MS

I will really miss Marvin. He was a treasured friend to me. My heart goes out to the Duplessis family and my prayers are being lifted too. Marvin and my brother were friends when they were both members of the Southern University Human Jukebox. Marvin's been just like a brother to me for more than .45 years. 🙏❤️
