

Marvin Reed

October 20, 1964 - April 9, 2026

Marvin was born to Martha Reed and Wallace King in Blakely, Ga. He was a 1983 graduate of Henry Snyder High school of Jersey City, N.J. He then joined the marines after graduating high school. He was a kind and loving person who believed in helping everyone, but when he said the word "no" there was no explaining why he said no. After retiring from the marines after serving 22 and a half years, he worked 20 years for Stepan Company as a E.D., Process Technician until his illness. April 9, 2020, God picked another flower for his garden. Marvin was preceded in death by his father Wallace King and his Sister Tammie Reed.

Marvin leaves to cherish, his mother, Martha Reed Atlanta, Ga. 2 Brothers: Wallace Reed of Jersey City, N.J.; Michael King (Johnnie Mae) Blakely, Ga. 2 Sisters: Melissa Reed of Greensboro, N.C.; Mary Torrence (Theo) of Colorado. A daughter Karen A. Reed of Gainesville, Fla. 2 sons: Marvin Jasiah Reed of Columbia, S.C.; Damien Lester of Jersey City, N.J. 4 Grandchildren: Niko Denson, Jade Denson, Alanna Dae Lester, Damien Lester II. And a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends

Marvin was a brother in arms and I'm so proud to have served alongside him in the USMC back in the 80's

*He is and will always be a great spirit; very kind, respectful, loving and numerous. He was a smart guy.
We will miss him*
