“ I am so saddened and did not know of the passing of Mrs. Austin. She took care of all three of my girls who are now in and have graduated college. She was indeed very special. May God continue to bless her family and loved ones.

“ I am deeply saddened by the loss of Mrs. Austin. Condolences to the entire family. I am forever thankful to the Austin family & Michelle, whom I have known for 39 years. Our friendship has been like family the entire time. I appreciate the love and allowing me the opportunity to experience and enjoy life with all of you through cheerleading, vacations, concerts, UGA visits and so much more. Mrs. Austin was truly a blessing. May the Lord bless and comfort your family during this time. Love you all, Makeba (Nikki) Lawhorn and family.

“ Mike and Michele: my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your wife and mother. Mary truly was a beautiful person inside and out. She was a treasure to many parents who had the privilege/honor of her taking care of their children. She was EXCELLENT and loving with all the children. She kept my son and I never had a moment of worry. I loved her smile and used her advice in raising our sons. She was an ANGEL and as close to perfection as any human can be. May she rest in heaven. My thoughts and prayers to you all. Love, Necie Ross Miller
