“ Although I didn't know your loved one personally, as a concerned reader I would like to offer my sincere condolences to the family. May you be comforted by your loving memories, family, and close friends. Know that our Heavenly Father Jehovah (Psalms 83:18) is near to us in our times of distress. (Psalms 34:18) The Bible assures us a time when sickness and death will be done away with, (Revelations 21:4 Isaiah 33:24) and a time when our loved ones we lost in death will be resurrected. (Acts 24:15 , John 5:28,29) Our Heavenly Father will grant us the mental peace we need (Phillipians 4:7) when we draw close to him in prayer. (James 4:8) May this scriptural comfort soothe your heart until these promises are fulfilled. For satisfying Bible answers on this subject and more visit jw.org

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. As you look ahead, please keep in mind that "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him. (1 John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in God's provision to restore dead ones to life when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Jesus encourages us: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me." (John 14:1).

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. It is such a comfort to know that the bible calls God " the source of life" (Psalm 36:9, 17:24, 25) The One who gave life to all living creatures is certainly capable of restoring life to someone who has die.

“ Words cannot express how sorry I am to learn of your loss. Please be assured that God does care for you. (1 Peter 5:7) May you find strength and true comfort in God's promise at Revelation 21:4 which says "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.
