“ To the Family and Friends of Mrs. Bell:
I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. May "the God of all comfort" grant you all peace as you keep in mind: "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). God empowered Jesus to raise up dead ones from the grave when he was on the earth. Jesus said: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me." (John 14:1). God is faithful and always keeps his promises! Consider Isaiah 26:19 and Revelation 21:3-5.

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to the family and friends of Mrs. Bell. I pray that Jehovah, the God of peace grant you the mental peace and comfort mentioned in his word the Bible at Phillipians 4:6,7 at this difficult time.

*I know loosing a loved one in death is a tragedy, however we look forward to a joyful time in the near future when Gods Kingdom (mentioned at Matthew 6:10) will rule over mankind. Under that Kingdom "no resident will say I am sick". (Isaiah 33:24) There will be no death nor tears. (Revelation 21:3,4) The loved ones we lost in death will be resurrected. (John 5:28,29) We will live forever here on earth in the abundance of peace.(Psalms 37:11) Meditate on Gods word, and draw close to our Heavenly Father Jehovah in prayer during this difficult time.

“ Dear Family, I am deeply sorry for your loss and wanted to express my sincere condolences. May it comfort you to know that God promises to "swallow up death forever and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8). May your family draw strength from this promise and God continue to sustain you during this time.
