

Mrs. Mary Azalee Boykin

January 2, 1937 - June 9, 2024

Mary Azalee Boykin entered this world on January 2, 1937 in Humboldt, Tennessee to George and Azalee Williams. While waiting at a school bus stop she met the love of her life, Sampson Floydell Boykin. They were married May 3, 1953 and had six children. Deborah (Thomas) Quinnie of Stone Mountain, GA; Steven Boykin (Deceased), Dora (Larry) Williams of Covington, GA; Sampson D. (Patricia) Boykin (Deceased); Mary (Dwight) Hooper of Ellenwood, GA; Rodney (Kimberly) Boykin of Atlanta, GA.

Mary often tells the story of Sampson having pneumonia and being struck with a high fever. She said he was delirious and kept saying children, all these children. She realized he was envisioning the future. That vision led to 6 children, 22 Grandchildren, 33 great-grands, 6 great-great grands.

Mary was a true servant of God and devoted her life to Christ at an early age. No matter where she lived, she found a church to be active in holding various roles such as being a choir member, bible school teacher, and financial secretary.

If Mary wasn't in church or studying her bible, she could be found watching her favorite basketball team play (whichever team LeBron was playing on), playing spades, Words with Friends or simply spending time with her family.

Mary was a devoted daughter, wife, mother, aunt, grandma, granny gran, and friend. She departed this earth to join her Heavenly Father on June 9, 2024. She was proceeded in death by her parents George and Azalee Williams, her husband Sampson F. Boykin, two sons Steven and Sampson D. Boykin, her granddaughter Amy Stennett, her daughter in Love - Kimberly Boykin, and her siblings Mildred Sinclair, Queene Beene and George P. William.

Celebration of Life Service for Mary Boykin will be held on Saturday, June 22, 2024 at 11:00 AM. This service will be recorded and streamed live.
