“ Dear family, first of all I want to say, our prayers are with you Elder Luther, Tri and Shaniqua and family. 🙏. I thank God for my precious Sister Mary. She was such a loving and giving sister and friend. I first met Mary and Elder Luther back in Virginia Beach, VA at the Christian Fellowship Assembly under Elder Cliff Hedgspeth and Sister Kim. We had such great times in the Lord together. She was a discerner with a powerful gift. The greatest gift I know in her was love. Even though I was older than her she called me her baby. 😊 One time she and Sister Althea paid for me to come to Georgia to spend a week with them so I could get rest from all the things I was experiencing at my home. Thank you Lord for her and her generosity. I will miss her for now, but I know I will see her soon in that great day with our Lord. Family be blessed and know that God has you in His mighty hands.

“ We are thankful to have known Mary. She was always welcoming to us in church with her smile and warm embrace. Her faith in God can never be forgotten to encourage us to trust in him who holds our life in his hands. Mary thank you for your fellowship and being a loving sister in christ.

“ A contagious beautiful smile and generosity are qualities of Sis. Mary that I remember the most. I remember upon seeing how uncomfortable my feet were in the sandals i was wearing, she dropped cash in my hand and pressed it so i couldn't return it. She then said " Sis get some shoes." Other times, she asked me did I want "hands me down (clothes) for our three daughters. Shortly, her daughter Neka, and grand-daughter Faith wete blessing our girls with bags and bags of clothes. Brother Luther and family may the Mighty God sustain you through the season of grief. ❤️ I will continue to keep you before our Mighty Father in our prayers. Mrs. MARY SLEEP IN PEACE 💙 -Myrlande J.

“ *I am thankful for Mary Hill being a sister in Christ at Alpha Omega Ministries. She was a loving, kind, friendly Christian lady. I am thankful for her hospitality for the ladies fellowship and her church family at her beautiful home. She really loved people and lived a beautiful life. She will be missed. For me, she is now "in the hall of fame of the great Christians" like those written in Hebrews 11. :) With love to Mary Hills family,

“ I had the blessing to meet sister Mary in one of my trips to Georgia. I felt welcomed and loved when I visited her home with my dear sister and friend Patricia. Although saddened by her passing, I am grateful for her life, her prayers and the little time I could share with her. She was a strong woman and warrior of God. My love and prayers of comfort and peace go to her husband and children and those who loved her. Jesus is our best comforter. - Big hug, Lucy

“ Luther and family. I am genuinely sorry for your loss. Even though it has been many years since I saw you two, your kindness, guidance, generosity in all categories, teachings and care you gave and showed to me and my family was most appreciate and missed. I miss Mary's smile and sweetness when we saw one another at church and at her house for the women's ministries. Luther and family, may you all be comforted by knowing that she is indeed resting for eternity in joy and may the God of Shalom comfort you all till it is time to go Home as well. May her legacy lives on through her children and children's children. Global Sojourner - Nadja (from India)

“ There are not enough words to express what a beautiful sister in Christ and faithful friend Mary was. I am so incredibly thankful the Lord crossed our paths years ago. She was an amazing friend, prayer partner and warrior who counseled, cheered and celebrated with me and my family. She saw us through the good and the bad always believing the best, and I praise God she was able to see fruit of many of her prayers and words of encouragement over our family and the lives of others she prayed for. She walked in her faith through the good and the bad, holding on to her faith, trusting and believing. When I think of her, I see her praising with her beautiful smile while fighting the good fight of faith. My family and I were blessed with knowing her and inspired by her honest love and faith. While we grieve the loss of not having her present in this life and miss her so, we are comforted in knowing she is with Jesus, truly resting in peace. We continue praying for His comfort to surround all who knew, loved and miss her, especially the family. Praying that her legacy would stay strong in our hearts and minds and encourage and inspire us also to walk out our faith with boldness, truth, grace and love as she modeled for us. Whenever I hear songs of praise and worship, I am grateful for the memories God has given us of Mary joyfully praising Him with all her heart.

To my beloved cousin, my heart is heavy. I going to missed our calls and texts. You will forever be in my heart. She was beautiful inside and out. Always kept a beautiful smile, through her battle. She had Faith and Trusted God for everything. She always looked up and never down. It brought you great joy! To see that beautiful smile, when she came home. Baby Girl, take your rest. You fought a good fight to the end. To my family you are always in my thoughts and prayers. Weeping made Endure for a night, Joy coming in the morning.

“ Mary was a wonderful friend to me. We met when I moved to Miami back in 1988. Over the years we have remained friends where she and her husband Luther were also my daughter Shanna and I's Bible study leaders on Wednesday nights over the last few years. I already miss her! So glad for all the times I spend with her and her family.

I have known Luther and Carolyn for almost 47 years. They are my family. So when Luther told me we had lost her and she had gone to glory, I didn't want to believe or accept it. My heart is broken, but I realize she is no longer suffering. My sister, you will be sorely missed, but never forgotten. I love you both and I have a lifetime of memories to help sustain me. I am blessed to have known you.
