“ My sincere condolences go out to you and your family for your loss. During Jesus’s Millennial Reign, obedient subjects of God's Kingdom will grow to perfection, eventually becoming completely free from all the effects of Adam’s sin. (Romans 8:21) Jehovah will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. (Isaiah 25:8)

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to the family and friends. I pray that Jehovah, (Psalms 83:18) the God of peace grant you the mental peace and comfort mentioned in his word the Bible at Phillipians 4:6,7 during this difficult time. I know losing a loved one in death is a tragedy, however we look forward to a joyful time in the near future when God's Kingdom (mentioned at Matthew 6:10) will rule over mankind. Under that Kingdom no resident will say I am sick. (Isaiah 33:24) There will be no death nor tears. (Revelation 21:3,4) The loved ones we lost in death will be resurrected. (John 5:28,29) We will live forever here on earth in the abundance of peace. (Psalms 37:11) Meditate on God's word, and draw close to our Heavenly Father Jehovah in prayer during this difficult time. visit jw.org for more scriptural comfort on dealing with the loss of a loved one.

“ To the Family and Friends of Mrs. Hill: I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. I offer heartfelt condolences and Scriptural encouragement to comfort you all as you look ahead to the future when death will be no more and all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (Revelation 21:3-5, John 5:28,29). Jesus confirmed his role in God's resurrection provision when he said: I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. (John 11:25). What wonderful assurances of love shown by Our Heavenly Father and his only-begotten Son!
