“ Auntie, auntie, auntie,..... I have been trying to think of the perfect thing to say. The only thing to say is that we are going to miss you! One thing for sure, you left us with so many memories that you will never be forgotten. Everyone got there memories with you as individuals and when we got together as a whole. You are free, I never fully understood that until now. Rest easy auntie. We love you!

“ It seems so surreal that you're gone, but you will forever be in my heart. I will remember the many laughter's we had, whether I was at your house or on the phone, we always enjoyed our time together. I will remember how we enjoyed watching and discussing GENERAL HOSPITAL for so many years; it was one of our favorite soaps. I will remember my times of visiting and you making me coffee and toast, making every moment about me. I will remember your love of music (Motown) and how you would dance and sing. You did it with so much happiness. I'm trying to make peace of your peace now, but it hurts so much. So as I press forward through your memory, I know I will find comfort, and I say my goodbye to you on Saturday I will be at peace.

Forever loving you.

*Your niece,
Sharon Mahome Adams*
