“ To Ms. Mary's Family,

Today my Canon department shared our favorite Ms. Mary moments and/or memories. It was good to remember her with laughter. Her sense of humor, sense of style and ability to speak volumes with just a look, will be missed. Getting something baked from Ms. Mary will definitely be missed. Her signature chocolate pound cake was second to none.

She often talked about her family as she made her rounds through our department. You could see the pride on her face.

I pray that soon your memories will be followed by smiles.

RIP MS. Mary

“ To the Kirkley family,

May memories of Ms. Mary and the love of family surround you and give you strength in the days ahead. My Thoughts and prayers are with you and the family. Mary was a co-worker (Canon). Words cannot express our sorrow. The office won't be the same without Ms. Mary. She will be missed. Rest on Ms. Mary.

“ Hi Mary, I will always remember our long drives downtown. Stopping at McDonalds for coffee. It was always a rewarding trip, even with the gps system we managed to miss our turn every time. During you last days at home, I'm going to miss coming by with your 4 beef patties from your favorite Caribbean restaurant, as we sat and talked. Sadly missed but never forgotten.
Love your friend Edwina

“ Miss Mary was always welcoming. From my days as a visitor at Canon to the day I became an employee. After moving to Dallas, TX, when I would return to the Atlanta office, I would make a straight line to her. Always comparing the miles on our Honda Accord. She will be missed dearly. My thoughts and prayer to her family that she was so very proud of.

“ I would like to express my sympathy in the loss of your loved one. When a loved one dies it causes much pain and sorrow. But the Bible gives us comfort to know that Jehovah God will help you to endure. Scriptures such as Psalms 34:18 and Revelation 21:3,4 can strengthen us. May these few words comfort you during this time of bereavement.
