He makes me lie down in green pastures he leads me beside the still waters. He restored my soul:he leads me in the paths of righteousness for his name 's sake. Yea,through I walk through the valley of shadow of death. I will not fear of evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in house of the LORD for ever Amen

We were friends for 20 years, having met in lobby of dekalb medical cewhere I worked. Over the years, I brought her to our church from wherever she and her daughter moved. Mary and I became friends. I last visited her a few days before mother's day and took her flowers. Sadly, I wasn't aware of her passing until today when I called Delmar gardens and was informed she no longer was there. I looked up obituaries. I will always remember our times of praying and laughter.
