“ *To the Family & Friends of Mrs. Rivers:
I offer heartfelt condolences to you all. When loved ones fall asleep in death, we gain comfort as we consider the loving resurrection provision that God made for us when "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). Our loving Creator assures us:
"Your dead will live....They will rise up." (Isaiah 26:19).
Remember...God is faithful and always keeps his promises!*

“ My beloved mother-in-law, you will be truly missed. I love and miss you more than you'll ever know. Words cannot express how I am feeling right now. We are all torn apart and will be for time to come. You have been nothing but a blessing to Pinkie and me. From day one, you were an angel sent from Heaven. I remember the day when I first met you. You welcomed me into your home with a big smile and big hug. You knew how to brighten up a room with that big, beautiful smile of yours. You always brought the good out of bad situation. No matter what we talked about, you always ended the conversation talking about the Lord. No matter what I went through, you always lifted my spirits and brightened my day. You were my sun and rainbow at the end of a storm. I can hear you now telling me about my coupons saying, "Now Dianca, you and Doctor Mae with y'all coupons." I would always laugh at you when you say that. I have nothing but good memories about you. I could go on and on and on. These memories will last a lifetime. I have always bragged on having the BEST mother-in-law and husband in the world; several people agree with me! I am hurt, yes, but at the same time thankful because the Good Lord blessed us with five super duper years together. In those short five years, you left a good, lasting, and loving impression on my heart. You were always so happy to see us when we came by. You had a heart of triple gold. You always told us what was best. You always put us in our places if we got out of line. You are so special, honest, and genuine. You were so happy, positive, and full of life. Reality is slowly setting in as I shake my head in disbelief and grief. Thank you so much for everything that you've done for us. You know, my Aunt Linda and you were good buddies; she was sooooo crazy about you and always talked about how good of a person you were. We are forever and sincerely grateful. Tell Joe, Jr. that mommy and daddy miss him so much. Give him a big hug and kiss for us. You'll forever be in our hearts. I love you today, tomorrow, and forever. WE LOVE YOU!!!

Your loving daughter-in-law,
Dianca Lewis-Rivers

To the family, I am so sorry for your loss. I'm thankful I got a chance to sit, talk and laugh with her a few weeks ago when I was visiting. God directs our path. I know you all will miss her but take comfort in knowing she is with her husband and hold on to the good memories. I know I will. God will give you strength to get through this. Praying for you!!!

It breaks my heart to see such a wonderful, god fearing lady on this site. Even though our friendship was short lived, I highly respected and love her. She was a very sweet lady, who did not mine telling you about the lord. I know God has a special place for her in him kingdom, So family, know that you may loved her but God loved her more, and she will always be with you.
