“ Grief can be so hard, but our special memories help us cope during this most difficult time. May Jehovah, the God of all comfort and the love of your family give you the strength you need to endure. (2 Corinth. 1:3,4)

“ My sincerest condolences to the family of Maryann Briley. No matter who we are, losing a loved one in death is painful. The pain, grief and feelings of helplessness can be unbearable. At 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 the Almighty God invites us to look to him for the comfort and strength we need to endure difficult times. He has also provided a hope of the resurrection for our loved ones that have fallen asleep in death. (John 5:28,29) May you find peace and solace in Him and your fond memories of Maryann.

“ To the Family & Friends of Ms. Briley: May "the God of all comfort" grant you all peace as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29). God made that loving provision when "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in raising up ones who fall asleep in death when he said..."I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Remember..."God's Word is truth." (John 17:17).
