

Mattie Mae Elliott

June 3, 1939 - August 15, 2024

Mattie Mae Williams (Elliott), age 85, of Rex, GA transitioned peacefully to her heavenly home on Thursday, August 15, 2024. Mattie affectionately known as Granny was born at home on June 3, 1939 in Rockdale County, GA to the late Leila Grace Roberts and the late James Williams. Mattie and her 5 siblings were raised by their mother Leila and father the late Lonnie Eugene Roberts.

She was preceded in death by her husband of many years Ulysses C. Elliott. To this union they had four daughters, Sandra Lay (Decatur, GA); Betty McCullough (Rex, GA); and twin daughters Louise and Lucille that preceded her in death. Mattie became disabled over 30 years ago and her daughter Betty became her dedicated caregiver up until her death. Before her disability Mattie was a hard worker and enjoyed working for more than 16 years in Housekeeping at the Sheraton Northlake Inn. She was an amazing cook and often baked mouthwatering homemade buttermilk biscuits.

Granny spoke her mind and did not take any mess. Everyone who encountered her fell in love with her spirited personality. She was quick-witted and always had hilariously funny snapbacks. She was a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother, sister, aunt, sister-in-law and friend. She will be missed by all and will live on forever in our memories and in our hearts.

Celebration of Life Service will be held on Saturday, August 24, 2024, at 3:00 PM entrusted to Gregory B. Levett & Sons at the Rockdale Chapel 1999 Hwy 138, Conyers, GA. Interment will be held at Shady Grove Cemetery 2055 Gees Mill Business Pkwy, Conyers, GA 30013

“ I am deeply saddened that my great-aunt has passed away but it's a blessing that all I have are great memories of our times together in my childhood, especially when my she and my grandmother were neighbors (and I was a daily visitor), and I am deeply grateful for the love and validation she bestowed upon me and she taught me that despite what anyone else may think of me—I was the one to make the decision on what path my life would take. She always had an open door to me and even in the decades of her illness when we saw each other she would tell me how she was proud of me. I will deeply miss her but I will continue to carry her memory in my heart forever.
