“ To the family of Mattie Lois Jester: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that God works in mysterious ways or that God needed another angel, does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear love one. During this difficult time, much comfort can be found in God’s Word the Bible. An interesting question asked by the faithful man (Job 14: 14, 15) “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? The answer, “You will call, and I myself shall answer you.” Therefore, death is not the end of it all, because one day in the very near future God’s promise will come true at 1 Corinthians 15:55,57 “Death where is your sting? Thanks, to our Lord, Jesus Christ!” Sincerely,
