

Mr. Maurice Pemberton

February 27, 1951 - August 23, 2020

On Sunday, August 23rd , 2020, Bro. Maurice Lloyd Pemberton went home to be with the Lord, leaving a legacy of humility, love, charitable services and a host of family and friends who's lives were all touched by his unique and excellent spirit.

Maurice was born on February 27th, 1951 in Basseterre, on the beautiful island of Saint Kitts. The fourth of four boys born to Keturah and Luther Pemberton. As the youngest sibling to Agnes, Joseph (Sonnie), Vincent and St. Clair, he often gave his older siblings a run for their money. Mouse, as he was affectionately called, was a prankster who often got them into hot water with their parents and teachers. For instance, often when he was being disciplined, he would cry until his father released him. And when he was released, he would run away quickly and laugh at his father. Making his brothers laugh while in the process trying not to get beaten themselves. At bedtime, they would giggle together, careful not to make too much noise. But of course, Maurice the troublemaker would make funny faces and sounds forcing his brothers to laugh along with him. Their father would come in the room with the belt swinging! Guess who never felt the belt? Maurice was always a step ahead planning his next comedic attack on his unsuspecting siblings, children, friends, family and pretty much anyone who let their guards down around him which was very easy to do because of his effortless charm and good nature. They all knew well not to fall asleep in his presence, or else risk waking up with toothpaste or baby powder all over their face.

His initial years of education began at Basseterre Boy School where he studied until taking the exam that would allow him to be accepted into Grammar School. In Grammar School, he sat his O-level exams, where he passed French and Spanish with distinction. For 6 years he worked hard and received a scholarship which allowed him to be accepted into the University of the West Indies in Barbados. He studied linguistics and earned his bachelor's degree in Languages, specifically French and Spanish. Soon after he began teaching in Barbados and was also working as an invigilator proctoring for CXC exams for high school students. And there his first son, Maurice Jr. was born.

He then went to Cayman Brac to teach, which is where he met Gloria the love of his life. He soon left the Cayman Islands for the Bahamas, where he continued to teach. Maurice and Gloria extended their family with Emerson, who was born in Jamaica. After Mario's birth, mother and son joined Maurice in the Bahamas and the family continued to grow, with Kahlil being born a few years later.

Maurice and family then returned to St. Kitts, where his relationship began with the Lord. During this time, Stephan was born, and Maurice's teaching career progressed leading them back to Bahamas where they spent 5 years. After a time, the family left to seek better opportunities and migrated to the the United States. They lived in Bronx, New York where they worshipped at the Gospel Assembly Church of Jesus Christ for over 10 years before relocating to Atlanta Georgia. They became a part of the Pentecostal Deliverance Assembly church family and Maurice served with the same gust of enthusiasm and love that he was well known for. Overall, Maurice served the body of Christ as a Deacon for 25 years. He is greatly loved and will surely be missed by his church family, who affectionately refer to him as "Brother P".

Maurice considered his greatest accomplishments to be his relationship with God, his marriage to his love, Gloria, for over 29 years, whom he cherished until death. As well as his sons Maurice Jr., Emerson, Kahlil, Stephan, and his grandchildren Kezia and Josiah. Family meant so much to him and he took every opportunity to ensure they knew he treasured them and even more so in his last days on earth.

He had a flair for the culinary arts and skills in the kitchen, he mastered the art of combining flavors, so well that he made octopus taste like chicken! He began every greeting in either French or Spanish and had a unique way of making an ordinary phrase or sentence sound magnifique! He was very passionate about education and used every conversation as an opportunity to teach. Maurice also loved to volunteer and one of his proudest moments was being a part of the rebuilding project in St. Martin after a major hurricane. Always loving the camaraderie of community Maurice was an active Rotarian member throughout the Caribbean region and was honored with the Paul Harris Fellow Award.

Maurice will always be remembered for his spirit of excellence, wisdom, and love for God. He consistently believed that God is faithful and is able to do all things well. He trusted God to the very end and encouraged others through his unwavering faith. In his darkest moments he remained a vessel that housed the light of Christ. He brought joy and life to all who knew him. He loved to laugh and to make others laugh. He was a unique gift of God on earth and will be forever loved and cherished in our hearts. His home now is with His heavenly Father. I hear the Father saying, "well done, my good and faithful servant".

Maurice is survived by his loving and devoted wife of 29 years, Gloria Pemberton; four sons and one daughter in law: Maurice Jr & Donna Layne-Pemberton, Emerson Mario, Kahlil, and Stephan Pemberton; two grandchildren: Kezia and Josiah Layne-Pemberton, his three brothers: Joseph, Vincent and St. Clair; his nieces and nephews Eric, Frank, Keith, Clive, Lesley, Steve, Julia, Eldon, Diahann, Shauna, Jason and Jacqueline; and his great nieces and nephews, Kyra, Shaniah, Cliandre, Diejane, Kitaro, Juwan, Clive Jr, Javier, Kylon, Shirnelle, Shane, Shamar, Gabriel and Julius III. He is also survived by other relatives in Palmetto Points, St. Kitts and Nevis, and cousins Tony and Eudora, in St. Croix. Maurice also leaves behind a host of brothers and sisters-in-law, devoted friends and a family in Christ that has shown him true brotherly love. May his soul rest in peace.

Schooldays were indeed happy days. I can recall him making every effort to speak both French and Spanish from the time he entered the St. Kitts- Nevis Grammar School where I first knew him. (We were not classmates as I was a year or two ahead of him.) He always made of the "Spanish R" a melodious sound and would have us cracking up with laughter the way he did it. He was always a lively student, never a dull moment around him, always a busy, but jovial person.

After school he travelled to Barbados and we lost track until his return to St. Kitts in the mid nineties. We worked together for a short stint in the Foreign Languages Department at the same school, before he left again. That was the last I saw him.

Maurice will always be remembered for his jovial character. He was kind, dedicated, enthusiastic and willing to try something new. I knew of his illness and passing with great sadness through his childhood friend, Peter Gumbs .

May his soul rest in eternal peace. My condolences go out to his wife Gloria, his children and the rest of his family.

“ My family extend our condolences to the Pemberton family. Maurice and I go back to the 60s in St. Kitts - we are by product students of the late Madame Zenaida Katzen who introduced us to a different level of learning, appreciating and understanding foreign languages, French and Spanish to be exact. One of my cherished memories of " Mouse " go back to 1968 when a group of us students (including Mouse and I) travelled to Martinique, a French speaking Caribbean island by a minesweeper on a cultural familiarisation tour for a week , all arranged by Madame Katzen. We certainly enjoyed this experience - this was a treat for us teenagers.

I know without the shadow of a doubt that his soul is resting in the arms of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Be strong in the Lord, hold to God's unchanging Hand.

“ Dec. Pemberton, so much to say and so many memories but the most important one is that he always had a positive spirit. You didn't see him get mad and even when he did get mad his tone was so soft. What a loving person!!!! He loved to make all natural juices and his cooking was awesome. I'm going to miss those Mother's Day and Father's Day get together we used to have. You have truly left behind a legacy where we will never forget. You were suppose to teach my little men some Spanish and a little French :) Again I wont forget how you helped me brush up my skills when I was in college.

Sis. P, Mario, Kahlil and Stephan, we are here for you. We love you and are keeping you in our prayers.

“ Uncle Maurice was a man of God, a man of wisdom, humble, sweet, kind, loving and always brought a smile to my face with his jokes and being a linguist made learning and speaking other languages very interesting and exciting. My children especially Madison was blessed by his annointed prayer at her 1st birthday. Praying for the family as we celebrate with heaven his homegoing service. May God wrap his arms around you and comfort and give you peace.

“ Maurice was a permanent part of our family, as his relationship with Peter existed from their childhood. It seemed, though, like we always knew him. He was a warm, caring, decent human being who demonstrated congruent Christian living.

We will miss his contagious laughter and his ability to converse on any topic.

At this difficult time, we pray for God's strength and comfort for Gloria, Mario, Khalil, Stephan and Maurice's brothers.

Maurice's legacy lives on. His was a life well lived. May he rest in peace until the Life Giver calls.

“ To know Maurice was to know some special. To lose Maurice, is to lose someone special.

He was such an admirable, humble, caring, loving, intelligent, kind hearted family man. Maurice could fit in any humble down to earth situation. It's the reason why he was loved by every one. He loved to take care of my sister, his wife Gloria and the boys, Mario, Khallil and Stephan in the best way a dad and husband could. He sets high stakes for his sons to emulate.

He got along well and in peace with us the extended family.

I remember how he allowed me to live with him, Gloria and Mario as a family while they lived in Nassau, Bahamas. For most part where they go, I go.

He accepted the Lord in the Apostolic faith and he did love the Lord, when Maurice gets ready to worship one had to give him way. He made good use of praising and worshipping his God, made no bones about it, like it was going out of style.

His HALLELUJAHS and GLORIES was his signature in worship. A wonderful man of God he was. Honest and trustworthy.

Our Family get together, Christmas or Thanksgiving will never be the same without Maurice there being busy with the chicken.

We will miss his laughs, his jokes and his great personality. No one can say "Take it easy" like Maurice.

We will all miss him.

May his dear soul rest in peace, as he awaits us at the gate to the City, where he thrived so hard to reach and where we hope to meet in the sweet bye and bye.

Heaven shine upon Gloria, Mario, Stephan and Khallil!!

“ When I think of Maurice, I cant help recalling his infectious smile, calm personality and a parenting syle that most children would admire. Maurice approached life with ease and a coolness that could easily be misunderstood. As a fellow educator, his deep interest in reading and conversional Spanish was most noticeable. I often fooled myself that I could keep up with him in speaking Spanish. In fact, special space had to be made in the house to accommodate his personal library, dozens of books on a wide range of subjects. He was also sure to find out how other family members were doing all the time.
The lives you have touched will remember you fondly Maurice, and will hold such memories dear. Rest in peace brother.

Mark the perfect man behold the upright, the end of that man is peace. When I spoke to Maurice over the phone, his shouts of hallelujahs and prayer inspire of his suffering, assured you that he has met the peacemaker . There is no doubt that is soul is resting in peace and light perpetual is illuminating soul. Family members take heart in the fact that he is in that better place he was longing to be.

“ Maurice pemberton was one of the humblest person I ever met. He was a good brother in law, a kind loving husband and a caring father to his children. A God-fearing dependable and willing person who never said no to a request for a good tasting chicken dish or a turkey for thanksgiving, or a bread pudding. Our thanksgiving or Christmas family gatherings will not be the same without Maurice whose special responsibility would be to carve up the turkey or ham. You certainly will be missed by all of us and all who knew you. May you Rest In Peace In your eternal home with your Savior till we see you again. Walk good Maurice!!

“ Maurice, Mo, 'Sisue', Momo, a person with a beautiful spirit!

One of my fondest memories Maurice was one summer when the family visited Jamaica and we would made a feast of some juicy east Indian mangoes and he has always said he looked forward to a repeat. Whenever we speak he would say how he'd like to be having some juicy east Indian mangoes and we would make fun of the conversation while I seriously believed, having hope that we would have such experience again. It didn't happen.

I remember in 2018 I had just got news that a friend of mine died and the Lord would have Gloria to call me just at the time I got the news, so she asked Mo to pray for me and he did and I was relieved.

He was such a gentle soul, I can hear his voice even now asking "how is Andre"? (my so) he never forget to ask. Always encouraging, glorifying God in conversation.

I would sing for Mo when I call sometimes and wanted to do so on our last conversation but it didn't happen, I am still singing that song for him in spirit for days unending.

Thank God for lending you to us, it was a blessing and I am glad to have met you so we'll catch up later when it's all over. "Take it easy"!!! Rest!!!

The first time I met deacon Pemberton I was blown away by his cool, calm demeanor, I was fascinated by his charismatic personality. He was a man of few words, but he was always praising God, he had an aura of peace about him that was second to none.

I had always liked his spirit, he represented the fruit of the Spirit collectively.

I was glad to have known him, even if it was for a short time, he has left a lasting impression upon my heart.

These words of his will always resound in my soul. (Take it easy) now I'm echoing those same sentiments.

Take it easy Maurice Pemberton.

“ My brother-in-law was a one-of-a-kind human being who truly cared for people.

When I first met him, he lived in the Bahamas where I had visited shortly prior and was introduced to cracked conch. Well, when I heard that he was coming to Jamaica I asked him to bring me some cracked conch. He didn't hesitate and on every subsequent visit he was sure to pack my delightful treat.

When I visited the Pemberton family in the Bronx, Maurice no longer had conch to give me, but on discovering that I was a coffee lover, he would spare no effort to make me a cup in a way that only he could.

Maurice took time to do things and sometimes I got impatient with him, but he never once retorted.

A man of God, he respected the supreme authority of the Most High, exhorting and lifting up the Name of Jesus. I can only imagine him around the throne shouting, "glory!"

Our hearts may be broken now, but Mo has only gone ahead - he took the earlier flight - and will be joined by many of us, whoever will.

I chose to spend last Christmas with him and was really hoping to beat him in the domino games. No luck. He was as merciless as he had been in all our previous games. It didn't quite bother me though for he had a rousing time and that's part of the cheer I wanted to bring him.

"Take it easy" my brother. I'll hold tight to the memories of you and Mike jerking chicken and you carving the turkey at Thanksgiving. I'm glad I got to share your life. Rest on in perfect peace.

Condolences to the Pemberton family. He was a very pleasant man and a man that trusted God even when he wasn't feeling well. I pray that Our comforter King JESUS Christ will comfort you all.

Our condolences to the family of Uncle Maurice. Our loved one has closed his eyes to rest from any pain or troubles, but our memories of him will remain safe in our hearts. May the family be comforted by the peace of God.
