“ To each of you who've shared your sweetness, time to post, your love and purchases of flowers. I have to take time to thank you. My heart does hurt; however, GOD did everything, beautifully, as HE called HIS servant, (Mother) Mavis Young, home to Gory: I LOVE HIM for that. I love my mommy and miss her, "some kinda awful", but it is well. Much love,
Her favorite child, Maxcine C Young-Howell

“ Mother Young was so loved by the Cobb family and we will miss her dearly. She gave our children clothes and was always on point with a prophetic word from God. Although we have tears in our eyes, we know you are in Heaven rejoicing, so it brings joy to our hearts. We love you Mother Mavis Young.

“ Mother Young, was a great example of a Lady of God. She displayed the love of Jesus, carried her self with class, and wasn't ashamed to glorify the name of Jesus. Thank the Lord Jesus for Mother Mavis Young, and may He give the family peace that surpasses all understanding

Mother Young, was a friend, a praying mother, and was the sweetest person to me and many others. Her words were "don't try to get ready for the Lord but be ready ". I love her and will miss her. God bless “ Mom/Mavis and I have been friends for almost 40 years. It was a friendship that started at the University of Hartford and continued for years after. We widened the circle and included our husbands and children. She was so wise. She used to say, "Ter, Ter," when she wanted to get my attention! We shared our personal lives, our faith and so much else. i cannot believe this person is not with us anymore. My inspiration to keep trying and trying. I love her so. Love, love, love you, Mom.
