“ Ms Maxine, you was the only one on your side of the family that welcomed and accepted me when your niece and I got married. You welcomed me in your house in Atlanta and treated me as if I was your nephew. You will always have a special place in my heart.

“ To the family of Maxine Gulley: We want you to know that we are sharing in your sorrow. People like Maxine are really rare. She was kind, caring and comforting. She was a fun-loving person with a warm smile and a hint of mischief gleaming in her eyes. She was plain spoken, calming, and beautiful from the inside out. She was wonderful and loving beyond measure. In style and fashion, she maintained a 21st century lifestyle, while at the same time sustaining Old School values such as loyalty and dependability in friendships. She was a trustworthy confidant. She was the best friend imaginable whose heartwarming laughter and positive demeanor will be missed every single day. Though her voice has been silenced, fond memories of Maxine will forever remain within the chambers of our heart. With all our love, The Johnson family.

“ Dear Families,

I knew Maxine while we were members of Nazarene Baptist Church in Evansville, Indiana. If Maxine couldn't make you laugh with her quick and fast-talking manner, then NOTHING could make you laugh! She quickly spoke her mind...then went about her business leaving you standing there still laughing! My thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this difficult time. The next time you hear someone laughing really hard, just think--that's the effect that Maxine had on people! ❤️

“ My sweet granny, me and you have been best friends for as long as I can remember. We did everything together board games, Dress up, make up , sew clothes etc.. Even if I weren't able to get to you we would be on the phone everyday for hours talking about everything and anything lol. I'm going to miss shopping with you and going on granny and granddaughter dates. I'm going to miss calling you for every little inconvenience. I'm going to miss you harassing me about pictures. I'm going to miss being your live baby doll 🧸. I wish we had a lot more time I'm still not ready to let go. I love you 1,000 times.

Love, bunny rabbit ❤️

“ Mom, through sacrifice and discipline, you made me the woman I am today. I remember the day I graduated college, you and cousin Kimberly were right there by my side cheering... err... screaming me on :) Thank you again for that. Sending you love and light: I pray you rest in peace and may God have mercy on your soul.

“ Aunt Maxine,

We grew up together. You taught me my ABC's and how to tie my shoes when I started kindergarten. You shopped with me for my first prom dress, wiped away tears, defended no matter what, and cheered me on as I raised your great niece Libby. Thank you!

Rest In Peace
